•A collection of the most fashionable, modern and beautiful accessories for your home•Material focus on fabric and textiles•Decorating a house? In need of inspiration? Then this book is a must-have! Cushions, curtains, wallpaper, table covers, and more; this book features many creative and stylish household fabric decorations, shown both separately and as part of complete room designs. The book is split into three segments: 'Home Decorative Fabric Accessories', 'Accessories in the Whole Interior Design', and 'Interview'. In 'Home Fabric Decorative Accessories', each textile product is presented holistically. High-res images accompany text containing information on product size, component materials and style. This gives the reader a nuanced feel for the featured items. Following this, 'Accessories in the Whole Interior Design' displays a range of interiors with various themes and styles. This section demonstrates how designers successfully employ the fabric accessories seen in the first third of the book, showing how each product can contribute to a cohesive decor. Finally, 'Interview'. Professional designers share their latest ideas, providing insightful tips on matching household interior to decorative textile accessory. This book guides the readers through a step-by-step process of home improvement, from theory to application.
