If I Had as Many Grandchildren as You... Lori Stewart

If I had as many grandchildren as you... is an inventive, eye-catching picture book written especially for grandparents to read with their grandchildren. The narrator is Grand Paws, a sage old lion who gives advice in rhyme to a befuddled grandparent on places to go, wonders to see, and fanciful, uplifting things to do with his grandchildren. Through lively, warm-hearted verse, an optimistic message, and photographic illustrations, this whimsical and uplifting book is a journey of discovery for children looking for adventure and fun, and for grandparents finding their very special role as memory makers. Winner of the 2013 Gelett Burgess Children's Book Award for achievement in children's publishing in the Society and Culture category. Winner of the 2012 Family Choice Award in the children's books category
