Ruth Bawell

When another rash of vandalism strikes the Amish town of Summervale, Katie Zook once again finds herself in the midst of a mystery. Detective Samuel Bradford is back in town, with plans to rejoin the Amish community he left years before, and Katie has hopes for their growing friendship. But the new round of destruction has caused suspicion to fall on the Detective, and even Katie's friend Emma has warned her to stay away from him. Now, a man has been murdered, and it's up to Katie to help find the true culprit and prove Samuel innocent. But the pieces to this puzzle are not easy to come by, and Katie soon finds herself in more danger than she expected. Will she be able to solve this case? And will she like the answers when she does?
