This compelling new autobiography, 180 Degrees, demonstrates just how sincere these words can be. An inspiring true-story of a once homeless, teenage drug addict who was able to achieve sobriety and ultimately become a self-made millionaire by the age of 30.

This book is an invaluable resource for anyone who has given up hope for themselves, or for a loved one who is self-destructing through substance abuse.

TESTIMONIALS:

Téa Leoni, Actress: "The story you share of struggling with drug addiction is captivating and disturbing, but most importantly, the success you have found after achieving sobriety is awesome and inspiring for anyone wishing the same."

Sugar Ray Leonard: 6 Time World Boxing Champion & 1976 Olympic Gold Medalist. "Rob is truly a fighter! One of the toughest opponents you could ever face is drugs and alcohol! We have all been knocked down in life and if you are looking for a way to get back up, "180 degrees" is the perfect trainer!"

Anita, Homemaker / Teacher: "Rob is an inspiration for those who believe that life without drugs is not possible. For those who have not experienced the devil of addiction, you will be amazed to hear the story of how he grew up and survived. Page to page, this true story will have you wondering, What could possibly happen next? Rob's story reminds us that no matter how bad a past you may have had, that there is always hope for the future."

Chris Hershey-Van Horn: "You don't have to be an addict to appreciate Robert's moving and sometimes shocking autobiography, 180 Degrees. Though I am not an addict (and plan on never becoming one, especially after reading this book), Robert's 180 Degrees touched me with the sheer raw power of its misadventures, and the subtle, yet encouraging optimism for those battling any kind addiction."
