Blank (Volume 1) William Saunders

Blank: student by day, sword-wielding vigilante by night.

Savannah is plagued with crime and has evolved from being Georgia's Hostess City to Georgia's Murder Capitol. At nine years old, Blank faced the danger first-hand in her own home, revealing her gifts of combat.

Contacted by her father who is trapped in The Lost, a waiting room between Heaven and Hell, Blank begins a journey to take her from ordinary teenager to the hero who might save Savannah. In her path she will not only see the dark side of the city, but a man named Abraham who calls that darkness his home.

This is the second book by William Saunders. William lives in Savannah, Georgia with his wife Tracy, and is the father of six. You can contact him at writer_geek@comcast.net.
