Diamond Fractal: A Story of a Shattered Mind Made Whole Karen A. Keegan, Minna J. Kayser

Two women, one story. Two countries, one continent. Both Minna and Karen grew up as MKs (Missionary Kids) in boarding schools in Africa. When their paths crossed in the USA, Karen had never before heard the term Satanic Ritual Abuse. Minna had never met anyone so innocent. If they hadn't experienced this story firsthand, it would be hard to believe that it's true. Diamond Fractal testifies to the power of God to change lives and offers hope for those who are stuck or struggling in their faith journey. Though not a how-to manual, the book encourages therapists who work with Dissociative Identity Disorder to explore with their clients the power of inner healing prayer.
