Willie of the Guadalupe Donna Pehl

Willie is indeed a wise old catfish who enjoys teaching the little catfish about the art of survival. He is the ever patient patriarch who keeps the little fish both safe and entertained as he instructs them through the lessons he is so well qualified to pass down. Willie takes his professorial position very seriously and knows when to be firm and when to let humor make his point. All the little catfish love and respect him and look forward to attending his school where there are so many fascinating things to learn.
