Is the Seawater always Blue? Shabana Dastageer Muhajir

Join Ayaan and Rayan on their summer break in Langkawi, Malaysia. While playing at the beach, the boys notice that the seawater cupped in their hands appears clear; however, the sea appears blue. The two boys always curious about things, approach their mother to explain the reason behind the blue sea. Be a part of Ayaan and Rayan's intellectual journey, and find out that seas not only appear blue, but gray, green and even brown at times. Discover the four seas named after colours, and the reasons behind the origin of their names. Both parents and kids should find Ayaan and Rayan's fact-finding trip fascinating. A non-fiction story that is easy to read and understand.
