The Art of Being Human (11th Edition) Richard Janaro, Thelma Altshuler

For courses in Introduction to Humanities

Help students broaden their perspectives and enrich their lives through the humanities

The Art of Being Human: The Humanities as a Technique for Living introduces students to the joys of the humanities — those disciplines that reflect the best efforts of human culture through the ages and around the globe. Authors Richard Janaro and Thelma Altshuler's topical, thematic approach empowers students to think critically about key artforms and themes individually, and to draw significant connections among them. The Eleventh Edition covers contemporary works — such as comic book blockbuster movies and the new golden age of television drama — in nearly every chapter to help students better understand themselves and the world in which they live.

Also available with MyArtsLab®

MyArtsLab for the Introduction to Humanities course extends learning online to engage students and improve results. Media resources with assignments bring concepts to life, and offer students opportunities to practice applying what they've learned. Please note: this version of MyArtsLab does not include an eText, but does include text-specific Chapter Audio.

The Art of Being Human: The Humanities as a Technique for Living, Eleventh Edition is also available via REVEL™, an interactive learning environment that enables students to read, practice, and study in one continuous experience.

Note: You are purchasing a standalone product; MyLab™ & Mastering™ does not come packaged with this content.
