Celtic Spells: A Year in the Life of a Modern Welsh Witch Allison Beldon-Smith, Mary Baker

‘I am Allison, and I am a witch. I live in the Welsh countryside with two black cats and a black dog, not forgetting a squealing pig. This volume shares some of my knowledge and just a few of my many spells, that will hopefully give even the jaded city dweller a chance to reflect on the bounties of the Welsh countryside, the turning of the year’s wheel and the changing nature of the seasons. By bringing nature into your home, and embracing the bounty that she brings, your lives will be enriched, happier and more content. So enjoy my thoughts, my words and my charms, and take away some of the happiness which I am freely sharing.’ This is a book which celebrates the beauty of the Welsh countryside, and of the pleasure of life and nature in balance. The spells and meditations contained within are designed to be simple to carry out, and will enrich your thinking and appreciation of nature, of friends, of love and of life.
