Quarterback's Secret Baby (Bad Boy Ballers) Imani King

They say you never forget your first love... Kaden: I knew Tasha when I was just a kid who could throw a football better than anyone else and she was a haughty, proud girl who wouldn't give me the time of day. Before I was rich, before I was famous, before I could have any woman alive - except the one I wanted. She says it's impossible even when she's in my arms, but I never did learn how to take no for an answer. Tasha: I always knew Kaden was going to leave, so I never let him get close, never fully risked my heart for the bad boy quarterback with the golden arm. Then a family tragedy brought him back to town and I lost myself for a brief moment - a moment I told him myself was just the one night. Now I've got a secret. An adorable, dimpled secret with the same blue eyes as his Daddy. A novel about small towns, first loves and second chances...
