It's true. They do exist. They suck the red out of watermelons, prey on the meatiest of Southern debutantes, and out-do even the nastiest mosquitoes at a Baptist Church picnic. You'll meet the charming lady from New Orleans who collects husbands, and a modern-day young vampire who's working to put herself through (what else?) nursing school at night. They're vampires of the South and there's more out there on your front porch than you may think. So y'all indulge in some Southern-fried , bloodcurdling terrow and take a stroll through these captivating tales of carnivorous Southerners with unquenchable thirst!
