A Powerful Story of Survival.

Overcoming prejudice through childhood, ostracized by the Church, criticized by many for making a living as a female impersonator...

An impelling story that begins when a male prostitute convinces a new client to be a madam of a call service and house, catering to the needs of a growing number of gay men.

A story that concludes with a decision that is most courageous—to change sex and deal with all the obstacles that go along with it.
