Falling Indians: Nine Monologues, One Play Zubin Paul Driver

“Rathod, the cockroach-killer, is one of Zubin’s earliest and finest pieces. Honest and terse, it looks inward yet outward in true Kafkaesque fashion at a world at war with itself. A delightful solo performance piece for any actor!” -Denzil Smith

“Devi by Zubin Driver is a monologue about a woman's loneliness, in spite of being married, having a wonderful home and belonging to an affluent society. It's from a point of view of a woman and Zubin has managed to reach out to a woman's soul and her agony in the most universal and modern way! I had a great time performing this 'Devi'” -Heeba Shah
