Feeding the multitudes William Watson

This play starts and ends in a homeless shelter that is put on earth to feed the multitudes. This shelter has five men that run it. The five men's names are Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, and Thomas. Matthew is an accountant that had some problems in the past and is running a homeless shelter now. Mark and John are country boys that love fishing. Luke is a Doctoral student that lost everything because he trusted in something other than God and Thomas is a very angry ex army core of Engineers employee. These men are called by God to feed the multitudes and at the end there is no food at the shelter during a horrible storm. This storm is the worst storm in the history of Georgia. At this time the faith of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, will come into question. Thomas's faith is not their but it will be in the end with a miracle that will possible feed the multitudes in this Christmas play.
