This book is for parents and caregivers who are looking for ideas about how to include their young children in food preparation. Kids want to participate in their family's everyday activities from a young age, but adults don't always know how to give them meaningful tasks that are appropriate for their ability level. This book is designed to inspire you and your young chef to prepare food together, inside or outside of the kitchen. The photos in this book demonstrate how children, ages 8-months to 5-years, are capable of feeding themselves and helping to prepare delicious meals.
