The Dragon's Tale and Other Children's Poems Kevin Bower

Clever pirates and dastardly villains, wicked kings and fair damsels, intrepid mice and bloodthirsty beasts - it's a dangerous world out there. An exciting set of poems for children, where you might even meet a centaur or two, too! Kevin Bower was born in Kendal, Westmorland and now lives in Lancashire. He worked in the catering industry for a while and then moved into the world of fitness. He spent five years caring for autistic children, giving this work up only when he needed to become a full-time carer to his own three children, who have influenced much of his literary work.
