Excerpt from Pædobaptism Examined, Vol. 2 of 3: With Replies to the Arguments and Objections of Dr. Williams and Mr. Peter Edwards

Mn. T. Bradbury. I know it is said, that the Jews had a method of baptizing among them, and that our Saviour only fixed it with his disciples as he found it with his countrymen; - but the Bible itself will not allow me to think as these men do, Whatever their learning is. Nothing can be more apparent, than that the Jews expected that the person who brought baptism amongst them, must be either the Messiah himself, or one of his fore-runners. This was the question of the priests and Levites who came from Jerusalem to ask John, whether he was the Christ, or Elias, or that prophet. And they that were sent were of the Pharisees, a people diligent to know the law, and zealous to advance it. Therefore they ask him farther, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, nor Elias, nor the prophet? And John in his answer shows us, that though the Jews mistook in a circumstance, yet they were right in their notion. I knew him not, says he.
