Bedding Vows Patricia Smith Ranzoni

Beyond fiction and limerick, stereotype and speculation, here's an authentically imaginative account of how some Maine folk live in love with nature, from youth through old age, until and after they die. To catch lifetimes of physical and spiritual devotion in reverent and irreverent poetry is both natural and rare. No one before now, here, has done it this way - a cultural document as well as bedside reader - to cherish for generations.
