The need to care for an aging family member tends to sneak up on everyone involved. Both adult children and their parents tend to avoid thinking about getting sick or old. But when the crisis eventually occurs, as millions of families have already discovered, it is more difficult to cope with the uncertainty, stress, and confusion of eldercare due to a lack of clear understanding and preparation. By anticipating what will be needed for your eldercare journey, you can make the trip much less stressful for everyone involved. The ElderCare Ready Pack will tell you what to expect, help you to prepare ahead of time, demystify the confusing process of eldercare and provide a clear path forward.
