It's roughly 200 years in the future, and he's spent the past 70 searching for someone he was separated from - someone he fears isn't even still alive. Carrying that fear with him, he's been weaving his way in and out of cities and past hundreds of humans who remain oblivious to the existence of his kind. He couldn't care any less about humans in general, as long as they don't harm his missing family. Not all of his kind are so indifferent towards humans, though. Some of them want to see the mortal race exterminated. Some of them are planning on doing just that. He knows this. He's not sure he'd do anything to stop the slaughter, but he would because his friend loves humans and he wants to make his friend smile. But, that's only if his friend is still alive...
