When asked to give a children's sermon or present other simple lessons to kids, many people don't know where to start. The FaithBuilders for Kids series comes to the rescue with dozens of quick ideas for teaching Bible concepts.

- Look Before You Leap features projects using only paper
- Fishers of Men combines object lessons with a family devotional format
- Meet My Imaginary Elephant offers a fresh look at many traditional symbols
- How to Eat an Orange presents especially difficult lessons in understandable ways
- The Inside Out Porcupine has thirty light-hearted stories teaching about commitment to Christ
- Jesus Is Your Wedge features object lessons about God and Christian living

Home-school parents, those who present children's sermons or teach in church school, and any adult looking for new ways to teach children important scriptural truths will find these books to be an invaluable resource.

Previously published in Baker's object lesson series, these books are now available in a convenient saddle-stitched format.
