In whatever form dragons appear, in fiction, legend or the unconscious, they are always powerful. Seen as aspects of ourselves they can represent depths of power, which we mere human beings find difficult to come to terms with. These depths may only be accessible through acknowledging untamed and unsocialized aspects of ourselves. Here is the soft underbelly of the universe, fire-breathing outrage, the instinctive desire to protect at all costs, the erotic and occasionally ecstatic experience of reality. What do dragons do? They guard the treasure. You can use these cards in a spirit of playful curiosity to find out where your treasure lies, to protect it and honour it. Pick one - sight unseen - for the day, for longer or for a specific project or occasion.
