Excerpt from The Truth About Christian Science: The Founder and the Faith

Yet the field of religion, Which yields the most blessed fruits, also abounds in the most poisonous weeds. Its very light may turn to darkness, and then how great is that darkness! The best things are always subject to the worst perversion and abuse. The science and art that invent magic machines and multiply material goods and create all the wonders and Splendors of our civilization, also produce the most diabolical devices of destruction and death that blast the very face of the earth and destroy millions of lives. All Our education is only a sharp and cunning tool that bad men can use as powerfully as good men. The Devil can clothe himself in light seemingly as pure and beautiful as the holiness of any saint or the White robes of an angel, and often so artfully as to deceive the very elect.
