Your first love isn't always your last love. But, what if you could relive that feeling ... that special moment ... if just for one night? Jeffrey McDaniel is living the middle class dream: successful business, nice car, loving and beautiful wife. However, Jeffrey cannot be satisfied because he is still living in the past with his first love. She was his everything, and the one that got away. Recently, she's reached out to him, and when the opportunity to reconnect presents itself, Jeffrey must decide to open his heart again, or ignore what he truly desires. Lawrence Peterson is the quintessential man's man. He has excelled in business, in life and in love ... Or has he? A chance encounter at his high school reunion reignites a flame he once thought was extinguished. The problem is, Lawrence's love is Jeffery's wife.
